THE HONORABLE JACK QUINN, PRESIDENT

Former United States Representative Jack Quinn (R-NY) joined Cassidy & Associates in the beginning of 2005 after serving in Congress for twelve years. Mr. Quinn works on behalf of clients to assist them in promoting their policy and appropriations objectives in Washington with a particular focus on transportation, aviation, railroad, highway, infrastructure, corporate and industry clients. As a recent former Member, he not only knows Representatives and Senators from across the board, he identifies with them, knows how they think, and what their needs and goals are. It is this intimate, first-hand understanding of Capitol Hill that enables Jack Quinn to achieve outstanding success on behalf of Cassidy & Associates' clients.

While in Congress, Jack Quinn was the Chairman of the Transportation and Infrastructure Subcommittee on Railroads, during which time he was a tireless supporter of Amtrak, and worked relentlessly to preserve it as an integral part of our nation's infrastructure. He fought on behalf of passenger rail lines, to improve safety, and to bring about the passage of the Railroad Retirement Survivors Act, which was signed into law in 2001. Quinn was also a senior member of the Transportation Subcommittees on Aviation and Highways and Mass Transit, where he played a key role in passage of the TEA-21 Reauthorization bill. Former Congressman Quinn also served on the Veteran's Affairs Committee and chaired the Benefits Subcommittee for three years during his tenure.

Complementary to his role in the U.S. House of Representatives, Quinn participated actively in the Congressional Steel Caucus as Chairman of the Executive Committee. He also served as Co-Chair of the Northeast-Midwest Congressional Coalition, as Chairman of the House Republican Working Group on Labor and as Co-Chair of the Northern Border Caucus.

Prior to his election to Congress, former Representative Quinn served as Supervisor of the Town of Hamburg, New York for nine years. He taught English at the Orchard Park, New York, Central School District and coached Basketball, Football and Track & Field.
